Subject: 2015 Mini-Convention Rules for Tomorrow Night

Hello Democratic Leaders:

Below is the formula for determining delegates for Monday's convention. If it works effectively, we will vote to formally use this for future years. This formula gives additional delegates to towns with all or most of their county committee seats filled, or with at least one Democratic elected official. The extra delegates area appointed by the municipal chair.

Please note, there are no contested elections tomorrow night due to those who filed, therefore, all contests will be by voice vote.

The following individuals hold Delegate Status and can cast one vote each

- Democratic Municipal Chairs
- Democratic Municipal Vice-Chairs
- Monmouth County Democratic Executive Board Members
- Monmouth Democratic Caucus Chairs
- Democratic State Committee Members
- Municipal, County, State, and Federal Democratic Elected Officials
- Former Democratic Party State Legislators & Countywide Officeholders
- Municipal Chair's Picks & County Chair's Picks

Additional Delegates

- 1) If a municipality has a 100% of its County Committee - 2 Additional Delegates
- 2) If a municipality 2/3rd of its County Committee Filled - 1 Additional Delegate
- 3) If a municipality has 1 or more Democrat on the Governing Body or a Mayor- 1 Additional Delegate

Note, that if someone is entitled to vote because they hold 2 or more positions, they only get one vote total. For example, if someone was both a municipal chair and an elected official, they would only get one vote.

There are no proxies of any kind for any position.

Below is an example of Red Bank. Red Bank would get a total of 9 votes as one of their individuals holds more than 1 title.

Red Bank

Dem. Municipal Chair - Ed Zipprich
Dem. Municipal Vice-Chair - Lauren Niccosia
Dem. Elected Officials - Pat Menna, Art Murphy, Mike DuPont, Kathy Horgan, Ed Zipprich.
Full County Committee - 1 Seat - To be Named by Municipal Chair
Full County Committee - 2nd Seat - To be Named by Municipal Chair
Democrat on Governing Body- To be Named by Municipal Chair

If you need help determining the delegates in your town, please let us know.
