

Dear Congressman Smith,

6-23-97

Thank you so much for extending the honor of an internship position at your office this summer. I can't tell you how thrilled I am to become a part of our country's legislative process. As a Republican resident of Ridgewood, NJ, I can't tell you what a pleasure it is to work for someone with similar interests, values, & concerns. I look forward to beginning my internship on the seventh of July & once again offer my gratitude & hearty thanks to both you & your kind & delightful office manager Patricia Coll.

Sincerely,
Stephanie L. Schmidt

Dear Chris,

7-30-97

Thank you once again for the wonderful opportunity to intern in your office. It's wonderful to know that in a small way I had a chance to help a dedicated & tireless advocate for Human Rights & Christianity around the world. Never has there been a more worthy public servant who makes one believe in the process & forget about the bureaucracy. My prayers will be with you as your Foreign Ops Amendment comes to the floor. I would love the opportunity to work in your office again, in the not too distant future. Thank you for showing me that Capitol Hill is an exciting & fascinating "work place" that I would like to become a part of.

Thank You & God Bless,

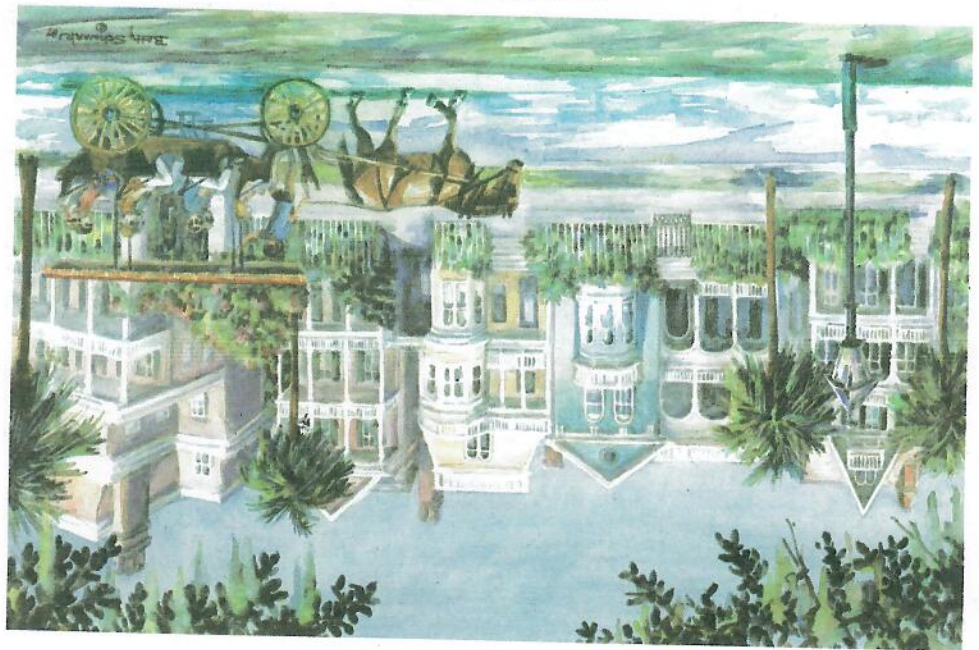

Stephanie L. Schmid

Dear Office,

7-30-97

I hope you are surviving without me! I know the copy machine is!! Hopefully Jerome & Mark are keeping George tied down to the office. (He can be very helpful, just don't let him near the computer or the mail.) To Father Stand Anne-Marie, I'm so sorry I missed you on Friday. Maggie, I hope you had a wonderful birthday, like I did. (Yes I got my license.) Ken - How did those pictures turn out? And by the way, Joan McCarthy's niece still needs that question answered. Everybody please email me at: stephs15@aol.com I know you must have some free time. Mary, my mom says you give excellent directions. Thank you all again for the lovely party & gifts, especially the space pen. (Which wrote this letter.) Patricia, I hope you don't mind but I put you down on my job applications as a reference. I was also wondering if you could put together a character reference for my college applications. I know how Mike loves to type. Good luck with the Foreign Ops Amendment God Bless -

Battery Carriage Ride

my Best Wishes Love,
Stephanie L. Schmid

P.S. Mark - I'm going right (don't worry)

Betty Schwark, Artist
Cobblestone Studios
40 N. Market St.
Charleston, S.C. 29401
(803) 853-5829

Patricia, Mike, Mary, Maggie, Father Stan, Mark, Andy, Ken, Dave, & Jerome,

Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year. According to the NY Times & the Wall St. Journal you've all been busy of late so enjoy your break. I'm having a merry christmas early, since I was just accepted to Yale University.
Recently I had an opportunity to be one of the test groups for Clinton's One America. May your holiday be filled very interesting. I with wonder and joy miss the office & the city alot since you all gave me an insiders view. I'm addicted to ESPN & Jerome, your right, Patsy Mink is on wal too often. I turned down a volunteer opportunity with Marge - back home. And my government teacher has no idea what he's talking about. Please email me @ steph15@ad.com. How did the end of George Patrick's internship go? Whos stud opening all of your mail? Mark how is your knee how's your tennis game? Ken - Congratulations personally on the press of late. Mary - I went into a trade one, plastic bulle w/ an NRA activist the other day. I send all my love.
Feel free to write. Love, Stephanie Schmid

ANDREW C. REESE

The Washington Workshops Foundation

3222 N STREET N.W., SUITE 340 • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20007
(202) 965-3434 • (800) 368-5688 • FAX (202) 965-1018

626 South 25th Street
Arlington, Virginia 22202

Phone (703) 548-2792
Email AndrewCh@aol.com
Cellular (703) 618-4172

June 18, 1997

The Honorable Christopher H. Smith
ATTN: Patricia Coll
2370 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515-3004

Dear Representative Smith:

Per my conversation today with Patricia Coll, I thank you for accepting Ms. Stephanie Schmid, to serve as a volunteer intern in your office this summer from Monday, July 7-Friday, July 25, 1997. I have sent notification to Stephanie regarding her internship and am certain she will be very pleased.

I will contact Patricia Coll in your Washington office during the last week of June to confirm the final details. Until then, I wish you continued success on Capitol Hill.

If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Andrew C. Reese
Congressional Liaison
Encl.